

date of collection March 26 2003 (11:56am)
location Dekalb Avenue/Hall Street (Brooklyn)
depicted flags in total 1
number of stars 50
number of red stripes 7
number of white stripes 6
colors red/bordeaux, white/grey and blue/dark blue shape distorted rectangle (“waving”)
position in garbage bin

text [frontpage only:]

NEW YORK POST 25 CENTS LATE CITY FINAL
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26, 2003/ Cloudy, late showers, 62/
Weather: Page 32 R www.nypost.com .. 25c

Battle at An Najaf

WIPEOUT
GIs kill 300 Iraqi troops
without losing a man

Scott Nelson / Getty Images An American tank rolls through the desert near An Najaf, where Iraqi republican Guard paramilitaries attacked the fabled 7th Cavalry – and were routed in one of the biggest victories yet for the coalition.

N.Y.Post map: Ana Gioia TURKEY SYRIA Mosul Tikrit IRAN
IRAQ Baghdad Tigris An Najaf Nasiriyah Euphrates Basra SAUDI ARABIA 100mi. KUWAIT
Up to 300 Iraqi troops paid the ultimate price for Saddam Hussein yesterday, dying in a futile bid to ambush the U.S. Army’s 7th Cavalry 100 miles from Baghdad.
Although attacked under cover of a dust storm, the U.S. troops slaughtered their Iraqi foes – without losing a single man – in the first major ground battle of the war.

Revolt rocks Saddam regime REPORT, PHOTOS: PAGES 2-15

dimensions (inches/cm) 14“x 11,5“x 1“/35 x 29 x 2
material newsprint paper

